

Now that I know you

Now that I have been so close to you, I want you more.

Now that I have known you in good times and some bad, I know it is you that I adore.

Now that we've spent so much time together, I realize how much you mean to me.

Now that we are becoming one, I understand that we were destined to be.

Now that I know that I can handle your demands.

Now I know that your life is in GODs hands.

Now that I have seen your every emotion.

I am sure that you have intoxicated me, with your love potion.
